SCRIPTURE PASSAGE: 1 Timothy 3:1-7

The saying is trustworthy: If anyone aspires to the office of overseer, he desires a noble task. ²Therefore an overseer must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, sober-minded, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, ³not a drunkard, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. ⁴He must manage his own household well, with all dignity keeping his children submissive, ⁵for if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he care for God's church? ⁶He must not be a recent convert, or he may become puffed up with conceit and fall into the condemnation of the devil. ⁷Moreover, he must be well thought of by outsiders, so that he may not fall into disgrace, into a snare of the devil. ¹

Review It

What is an overseer as it is stated in this passage? Pastor Mike went over this in Sunday's sermon. As an office within the local church, what is the role? What differentiates it from other roles within the church body? What are some of the qualifications that you heard described, but find challenging either to what you have heard prior or to what you expected?

When it comes to the term elder, why do you think it has so often been ignored by many Baptists?

Pastor Mike had a sixteen-point sermon. Which of those points resonated with you the most and why?

Why should the church be slow to lay hands on a pastor?
